Prayerfully consider reaching out to someone you that you might encourage to “try church again.” God gives us this incredible promise that His Word works. It does not necessarily change the situation we are in, but it does change our outlook, because it points us to the hope and comfort we have unconditionally through Jesus Christ.

On these days Concordia Hall will be 'humming' with the sounds of pleasant voices as the gals from LWML continue their mission of designing, laying out and tying quilts. † Matthew 16:27 “For the Son of Man is going to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will repay each person according to what he has done.” St. Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matthew 19:27-30. Bottom line: your good works can't buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter, they're pleasing your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words: your sacrifices for the Lord's Kingdom are not in vain, they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.
