Proclaiming JESUS Savior and Lord for LIFE

VOLUME 242

J A N U A R Y 2 0 1 8

NO. 1

Paul M. Crolius, Pastor

Roger Tessendorf, Principal
Cindy Nellesen, Administrative Assistant

FROM THE PASTOR

“Lord, You have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.” Psalm 90:1

There is a story about a supermarket clerk. Part of his job was to collect the carts left in the parking lot. He was on such a “cart run” when he saw a lady struggling with her groceries. Her cart was overflowing, so were her arms. He watched as the lady put a package on the roof of the car while she popped the truck and car doors. He watched as she loaded her packages and as she got into her car, started it up, and began to drive away.

Seeing she had left a package on top of her car, the clerk, left his carts and started running toward her. He reached her, just as she stopped and made the turn that would take her onto the street. He reached her just as the package slid off the roof; he reached her in time to catch the package—her baby—before it hit the pavement.

No doubt both the mother and clerk were glad he had detoured or deterred from his action. That was certainly the case in the coming of Jesus Christ to this earth as our Savior. He certainly was not deterred from being born a human being, then living and dying for our sins. Then rising again to declare victory over sin, death and the devil.

In this world, sin and Satan do their very best to put detours and roadblocks between Jesus and those He came to save. When they are successful, the results are often tragic and never what the Lord wants. However, as God's redeemed, we can we rejoice in the New Year! Rejoice! Jesus was born to save you and me from our sins.

We, as God's people, can step into the New Year with confidence. However, our confidence doesn't come in ourselves but in our wonderful and gracious Lord. Our confidence is found in the Lord who is always with us, that He has brought us salvation in Jesus, and will bless and strengthen us all the way and all the years of our life. As Psalm 90:1 declares, “Lord, You have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.”

Our Lord declares that by God's grace through faith in Jesus nothing that may come now or in the future that can “separate us from God's love in Christ.” Throughout the closing year and the year to come, our Lord offered and will again give us His strength and blessings. He gives them to us through His Word and Sacraments which are Baptism and the Lord's Supper. He gives us the blessings of the forgiveness of sins, salvation, and eternal life. He reminds us of His concern and care for us and all of His people. May we come and worship the Lord often to be strengthened in faith and assured of His love this year and every year until he comes.

This is encouraging and comforting news to hear as we will soon begin the New Year. This is also vital news we need to share not just this year but all our years and all our days. May God grant us all a very blessed year through Jesus Christ our risen Lord and King.

*In Christ,
Pastor Crolius*

Charlie Jo, daughter of Mikhail and Amanda (Georgeson) Reimer, was born on November 17, 2017, and baptized on Sunday, December 17, 2017.

GOLDEN AGERS

On December 18th, we met at the Voyageur for lunch and a meeting. Dee Duley read a lovely poem, "At Christmas Time." It brought back Christmas memories from the past. We enjoyed homemade cookies and closed with prayer. We will meet again on February 17th at Concordia Hall.

Choose one or all that you will enjoy and fit your schedule.

"The Journey of Paul" led by David Dietz. This group will meet from 6:30-7:30 p.m. on the 2nd & 4th Wednesdays, at Dietz Kitchen Gallery on Main Street.

"Christian Family Related" led by Shane Anderson. This will be a family Bible study, children are welcome. We will meet at 5:30 p.m. on the 1st & 3rd Monday, at the Anderson home, 1152 15th Street, Reedsburg.

"A Work in Progress" led by Carl Baumgart. A lawful "what we should do and how we should act," coupled with a focus on Jesus' love and forgiveness for our human shortcomings. The next scheduled Bible study is Sunday, January 7, at 6:30 p.m. at the Stan & Jan Albrecht home, S3110A Ableman Rd, Reedsburg.

Tuesday 1:30 pm Bible Study in Concordia Hall led by Pastor Crolius and Pastor Anderson.

GOOD NEWS ... GOOD NEWS !!

Barb Knopf from the Veterans Equine Trail Services (V.E.T.S) will be our guest speaker between services on Sunday, January 14, in Concordia Hall. She will tell you all about this awesome service that uses abused horses and other animals as therapy for our nations veterans. You won't want to miss this special presentation.

Plan ahead. Spread the news. Bring a friend.

Our meeting started with a very informative and interesting presentation by Mark Pelton telling us of how he, his wife Shaun, and sons transformed the old Pelton barn on Hwy. H into their new home. He showed us pictures of 5 generation of Peltons; thus this was not a barn he wanted to tear down. They had quite a vision as he showed pictures of how some parts of the barn were falling in, out or apart. With hard work and ingenuity, Mark described and showed how they were able to make the barn structually sound again and turned a dead barn into a living masterpiece.

After the presentation, President Char Hillman talked about how Jesus was born in a barn, a lowly stable, and this was the beginning of our new life and salvation.

The main part of our business meeting was discussing the LWML Lenten Supper which will be on Ash Wednesday, February 14. We will have pulled pork sandwiches with each member supplying a salad and dessert.

Mary Schwenkhoff led us in a mite devotion she wrote with inspiration from her Grandson about the beautiful twinkling stars. We then sang a Christian version of "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star".

We all thanked Char for serving us a seasonal and very tasty piece of "Candy Cane Pie".

LADIES AID

St. Peter's Ladies Aid members met at noon on December 7th for our annual Christmas buffet luncheon. Each year there are fewer of us with warm memories of "seasons past."

Pastor Crolius gave an Advent opening devotion. President Eldarene Bowlin opened the business meeting:

Curio Shop Report - There are still Christmas cards available and a new selection of sympathy cards.

Eldarene Bowlin, Committee of the Month Chairman, reported 139 guests were served at the funeral lunch for Norman Lindloff.

January Committee of the Month Chairman – Dee Duley

Serving Committee – Lisa Hahn and Dee Duley

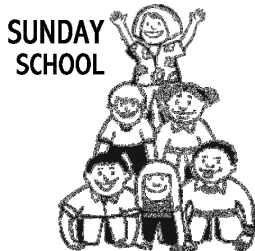

The 8th grade bell choir will be entertaining at the January 3rd meeting.

Birthday blessings were sung to Irma Lowery. The meeting adjourned with the Lord's Prayer. Lois Radtke entertained us with a 'Good Book' Christmas trivia quiz.

CHANGES COMING TO OUR RADIO BROADCAST

Beginning Sunday, January 7, and continuing through the month of February, worship services can be heard on WRDB 1400 at 8:00 a.m. and also on WCNP 89.5 FM at noon.

I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and I wish you all a Happy New Year! I am thankful for all the wonderful parents I have and their support in helping the children prepare for the Christmas program "From Heaven Above" that was presented on Sunday, December 24th.

Our Sunday school lessons will be about the Birth of Jesus this month. I feel this lesson plan is important for the children to learn, read, and listen to. Because of the preparation time needed for the program, we will be just a bit behind!

The lessons will be as such:

- Jan. 7th The Birth of John Foretold, The Birth of Jesus Foretold
- Jan. 14 An Angel Visits Joseph
- Jan. 21 The Birth of Jesus
- Jan. 28 The Presentation of Jesus

Sunday school classes meet every Sunday from 9:15am-10:15am in the classrooms at the St. Peter's Lutheran School. We learn about Jesus, do fun crafts/activities, and play games! We love to see new faces and meet new families!

If you have any questions or concerns, or would like to teach or sub for Sunday school, please feel free to contact me at:

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN SCHOOL NEWS

Hygiene Drive: Students who attend St. Peter's School have the opportunity to learn a lot more than just subject matter. They learn and experience how to live their faith. One example is the recent Hygiene Drive organized by the Student Council. This drive provided needed items to Head Start families in the Reedsburg Community. This may seem like a small thing to us, but it is a big deal to the families who will benefit from the drive. I want to thank Char Hillman for her leadership with the Student Council as it is an important part of school ministry.

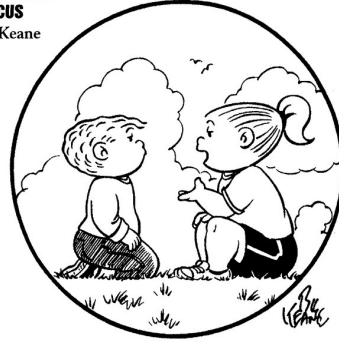

Security Improvements: The voters meeting on January 25th will include information about the proposed improvements to the security of the school building. Voters will decide what company St. Peter's will contract with to make those improvements. The security proposal has two main parts. First, an improved access control system will be added to the lower level entrance where the Daycare, Preschool and Kindergarten rooms are located. Secondly, cameras will be added to the building both inside and out. Plan to attend to find out more.

PTL Cookie Walk: Thank you for your support of the PTL Cookie Walk. Over $2,500 was raised to support the ministry of St. Peter's Lutheran School.

Pre-Kindergarten Registration: Registration for 3 and 4 year old pre-kindergarten classes begins January 1. Don't delay in submitting your application, classes fill up rather quickly. Applications are available online at www.stpetersreedsburg.com or you may also call the school office at 524-4066, ext. 1.

The Present: I enjoy the Family Circus comic strip. As I thought about Christmas and Epiphany I was reminded of one of my favorites that hang in my office. This cartoon reminds me that every day is a gift from God.

"Yesterday's the past, tomorrow's the future, but today is a GIFT. That's why it's called the present."

*In His Service,
Mr. Roger Tessendorf, Principal*

Mr. Dehn gave his 6th grade students the option to exchange names for Christmas gifts or give to a charity. The students chose the Humane Society as their charity. They will be traveling to the Humane Society in Baraboo after the Christmas break to deliver their Christmas goodies. What a wonderful gift of sharing!!

WHAT ORPHAN GRAIN IS DOING?

After disasters in Texas, Florida, Puerto Rico and California, OGT has responded early and often. A semi load of tools, generators, water pumps, wheelbarrows, etc. was sent to Fort Meyers, Florida and Corpus Christi, Texas to help with the cleanup. OGT has delivered seven semi-loads of sheetrock, two loads of insulation, three loads of clothing, and one load of mattresses to Houston.

Sixty percent of the food pantries in Houston were flooded and Trinity Klein Lutheran Church in Spring, Texas was asked to ramp up their food pantry service. They are now serving 1200 people a week and OGT has sent two semi-loads of food there to assist with those efforts.

Two semi-trailers that have been made into sleeping units have been set up at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Houston to provide sleeping arrangements for volunteers who travel to Texas to help with cleanup and restoring the city. They could be there for up to 5 years according to how much work needs to be done. Each unit can sleep 20 and they are air conditioned. Because of what OGT is doing in Texas, plans for a permanent branch for OGT in the Houston area is in progress. Two containers filled with relief supplies (cleaning materials, water, clothing, hygiene kits, etc.) have already been received in Puerto Rico and another in on its way.

Thrivent Financial has made $3,000,000 available through 9 different charities to be matched by December 31 and to be used in relief efforts. OGT is one of those charities. As of December 19, all but $184,000 has been matched by generous people from around our country. Several people from our congregation and our Ladies Aid were part of this process. Assisting those in need is what OGT is all about and we thank God that this special ministry is able to reach out and help wherever there is a need

THANK YOU

Dear St. Peter's Church

Thank you for the scholarship and the support that I have received as I continue to pursue an education and future career in ministry. The guidance and love within this community is a large part of why God has led me down this path and I feel called to serve in His church in the future. I pray that God continues to bless the church and school through the power and mercy of His Son. In Christ,
Briton Nelson

It's a new year. It's a time when we take stock of the year past in order to improve the year to come. It's a time when we sit down to plan and implement what we want to accomplish and even change. Part of that is planning our stewardship for the coming year.

Often we find this difficult and daunting and even joyless. But it doesn't have to be. In fact, it is really quite simple and full of joy. So here are some tips to make that planning less stressful. You begin by answering these three questions: Who are you? To whom do I give? And how much?

So, who are you? The Table of Duties in the Small Catechism informs us. Are you a hearer of God's Word? Are you a citizen of society? Are you a member of a family? Stewardship covers these three estates: church, society, family. We don't particularly struggle to give to society or family. Our struggles, our difficulties and our questions arise in giving to the church.

So, what is our duty as members of the church with regard to giving? The Table of Duties, again, gives us a guide. If you are a hearer, a member of the church who receives instruction, St. Paul taught: "Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor" (Gal. 6:6). This means the local congregation is primary.

Your pastor is the one called to preach the Gospel to you and administer the Lord's blessed sacraments to you. Your congregation is the place where those things happen. Thus, when God calls us to give to the church, He has the local congregation in mind. For "the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel" (1 Cor. 9:14).

How much do we give to the local congregation? Our only instructions are these: to give regularly (1 Cor. 16:1–2), proportionally

(1 Cor. 16:1–2; 2 Cor. 8:12), and generously (2 Cor. 8:20) of our first fruits (Gen. 4:4; Prov. 3:9; Lev. 27:30) with a spirit of eagerness (2 Cor. 9:2), earnestness (2 Cor. 8:7), cheerfulness (2 Cor. 9:7), and love (2 Cor. 8:23).

In other words, giving to the church is not to be an afterthought, given after everything else is spent. In this way, it is deliberate. We give regularly – weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, quarterly, or yearly – keeping in mind our own strengths, weaknesses, and limitations. We set it aside beforehand – before anything else is spent.

From those first fruits, we set aside a proportionate and generous amount. Ten percent was the standard for the Israelites. This was a command for the ancient Israelites. We can give as much as we want, but ask yourself: do we really want to be less generous than was commanded of the Israelites? Is the job of the New Testament Church bigger or smaller than the job given to Israel?

And how are we to give it? We give it with eagerness and earnestness. We give it cheerfully and with love, not out of compulsion. For through the preaching of the gospel and the administration of the sacraments, God has made us His children, forgiven us all our sins, given us grace upon grace, promised us life everlasting with Him in His kingdom, and filled us with His own Spirit, the Holy Spirit. This makes giving a joy, as Jesus said, "it is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35).

It's that easy. And it is joyful. For in stewardship, our gracious and giving Lord invites us to take part in the work that He accomplishes here on earth, providing for the ongoing preaching of the gospel as well as those who are in need. Taking part in that makes all our work holy – work that is done in service to the Lord as priestly members of His kingdom.
